Classified Index to Vols. XI-XV

June, 1927, to April, 1932

A Cumulative Index to the First Ten Volumes of This Journal Is Obtainable on Request

Bar Organization	Vol.	No.	Page
Bar Needs to Co-operate with Laymen	11	2	35
Protecting Public from Incompetent Lawyers	11	2	53
Progress Made in Bar Organization	11	2	55
Nevada Bar Organizes Under New Act	11	6	186
California Bar a Standard for All States	12	1	4
California Has Integrated Bar	12	1	13
A Strong Bar Protects Its Members	12	2	35
New York Uncovers Sensational Conditions, by Julius Henry Cohen	12	2	36
Two Sides to Ambulance Chasing	12	2	39
Virginia Lawyers Approve Organization Plan	12	2	59
A Scandal That Teaches a Lesson	12	4	100
Buccaneer Lawyers of New York Routed, by Julius Henry Cohen	12	4	101
Integration of Bar Makes Progress	12	4	106
Brilliant Achievement of Philadelphia Law Association	12	5	133
Pennsylvania Bar Seeks Integration	12	5	142
Philadelphia Bar Investigates Ambulance Chasing	12	5	144
Problem of the Migratory Lawyer	13	1	4
Discuss Needs and Duties of Bench and Bar	13	1	9
Bar Associations Need Journals	13	1	27
Local Bar Associations Thrive Under State Bar Regime	13	2	45
Oklahoma State Bar Act Adopted	13	2	49
California Bar Act Held Valid	13	2	61
Give Bar Associations Adequate Power	13	3	68
Representative Government for the Bar, by D. A. Simmons	13	3	74
Would Make Bar Admission Easy in California	13	3	78
Denver Bar Association's Organization Plan	13	4	110
Why a Unified State Bar, by Eugene Daney	13	4	111
Success of North Dakota Bar Unity	13	4	112
Permanent Center for State Bars—a Canadian Proposal	13	4	113
Future of Bar a Present Concern, by Dean M. R. Kirkwood	13	4	126
Need for Re-organization in the American Bar	13	5	142
Los Angeles Bar Succeeds in Judicial Elections	13	5	158
A Program of Growth for Our Bar Association (Washington)	13	6	170
Cost of Running State Bar	13	6	185
Bright Prospect for Co-ordinating Bar Associations	14	1	11
Bar Integration and the Referendum	14	2	36
Bar Co-ordination Movement Launched	14	2	38
Vision of Bar Triumphant Justified	14	2	41
A Bar Referendum	14	2	53
Federalizing American Bar Assoc., by Joseph McCarthy	14	2	61
Learned Responsible Bar Is High Ideal	14	3	70
Recent Meeting of Bar Association Delegates	14	3	73
Review of Progress in Minnesota Bar	14	4	126
Lay Encroachments, by Charles A. Beardsley	14	4	130
Duty of Bar to Improve Administration	14	4	133
Publicity for Bar Programs	14	5	140
Bar Integration in Idaho, by Jess B. Hawley	14	5	141
North Dakota State Bar Progress	14	5	161
What Is the Essence of the Integrated Bar?	14	6	171
Utah and South Dakota Bar Statutes Enacted	14	6	188
What Is Good Moral Character in 1931?—Indiana's Problem	14	6	192
Press and Bar Co-operate in California	15	1	10
State Bar Integration Prospers—Bills Passed in Utah and Wyoming	15	1	11
Group Advertising for the Bar	15	2	36
Present Trend of Bar Organization, by James E. Duffy	15	2	41
The Lawyer's Part in Reform of Government	15	3	67
State Bar Organized in South Dakota	15	3	70
Added Powers for Alabama State Bar	15	3	73
Texas Bar Faces Hard Problem	15	3	74
A Youth Movement for the Bar	15	4	99
Lackawanna Bar Association's Success	15	4	101

	Vol.	No.	Page
Youth Movement Sweeps Texas Bar	15	4	104
Present Status of Bar Organization, with map	15	4	107
North Dakota Bar's High Ambition	15	5	146
Lawyers Prepare for Group Advertising	15	6	165
California Bar Reveals Will to Conquer	15	6	173
Commercial Arbitration
Arbitration Wins in California	11	1	12
Arbitration in New York Building Congress	11	1	19
Why Not Arbitrate Traffic Accident Cases?	11	2	35
Arbitration Year Book Announced	11	2	36
Plan to Arbitrate Automobile Cases	11	6	178
Lawyer's Relation to Arbitration, by Carl C. Herring	12	5	154
Present Status of Arbitration Procedure, Report to Commercial Law League	15	5	159
Conciliation and Small Claims Procedure
The Danish Conciliation System	11	3	85
The Des Moines Conciliation Court, by F. R. Aumann	12	1	20
A Successful Community Court in Baltimore, by B. H. Hartogensis	12	6	183
Cases Settled on Eve of Trial in New York Municipal Court	13	6	183
Court Organization—Judicial Councils
Kansas and Connecticut Establish Judicial Councils	11	1	8
California Judicial Council in Full Swing	11	1	9
Texas Unifies Trial Courts	11	2	38
Kansas Judicial Council Organizes	11	2	52
Organization of Courts, by Roscoe Pound	11	3	69
Unification of the Judiciary—Act Creating State-Wide Court. Reprinted from Bul. VII-A	11	4	99
Massachusetts Judicial Council a Success	11	4	120
California Judicial Council Works Effectively	11	5	155
Diagram of State-Wide Court	11	6	166
Judicial Council Unifies California Courts	12	1	18
Powerful Argument for Judicial Council, by James W. McClendon	12	2	45
Virginia Acquires Judicial Council	12	3	82
Experience with Judicial Councils	12	3	83
Administration of Justice in Hawaii, by Miss Sau Ung Loo	12	4	111
Kentucky Judicial Council Is Twelfth	12	6	179
Judicial Council Movement Progresses	13	1	7
Ohio Tackles Justice Court Problem	13	1	25
Judicial Council Movement Reviewed	13	2	38
Wisconsin Establishes Judicial Council	13	3	71
Unify Maine Courts Under New Act	13	3	72
Judicial Councils in Texas and Pennsylvania	13	3	77
Judicial Councils Prepare to Co-operate	13	4	100
National Union of Judicial Councils	13	4	102
Work Done by Judicial Councils, by J. C. Ruppenthal	14	1	17
Judicial Council Bill for Oklahoma	14	2	46
Intermediate Appellate Courts, by E. R. Sunderland	14	2	54
Work Done by Judicial Councils, by J. C. Ruppenthal	14	2	58
Judicial Council Established in New Jersey	14	3	76
National Conference of Judicial Councils Meets	14	3	77
Shall We Lead or Be Driven?' by Harry A. Hollzer			78
Present Status of Judicial Statistics, by Charles E. Clark			84
Plan for Criminal Court Statistics, by Sam Bass Warner			88
Review of Judicial Council Movement, by James W. McClendon			93
Results of the Work of Judicial Councils, by J. C. Ruppenthal			97
Report of Federal Judicial Conference	14	4	129
Kansas Seeks Ideal County Court System	14	6	173
Planning for a Unified Judiciary (in Kansas)	15	1	4
Growth of Judicial Council Movement	15	1	14
The Work Done by Judicial Councils, III	15	1	15
Federal Judges Selection and Organization, by Prof. Burke Shartel	15	2	21
Ditto, part 2	15	3	46
Ditto, part 3	15	4	79
The Work Done by Judicial Councils, VI	15	2	53
Domestic Relation Courts in Ohio, by Prof. F. B. Aumann	15	3	89
Federal Judicial Council Seeks Bar Aid	15	4	108
National Conference of Judicial Councils	15	4	110

	Vol.	No.	Page
Judicial Councils Abolished in Oregon and N. Carolina—New Councils Created in N. Carolina and Utah	15	4	114
Report on Judicial Council Movement for Merchants' Assoc. of New York	15	5	145
Massachusetts Judicial Council's Seventh Report	15	5	151
Plans for Court Unification in Idaho	15	5	152
Court Unification in Massachusetts	15	6	170
City Courts
High Efficiency in Cleveland Common Pleas Court	11	1	13
London Courts Compared with New York's	11	4	118
The Courts of Birmingham, England	11	6	167
Court Supervision Wins in Cleveland	12	1	11
Cincinnati Judges Get Into Tangle	12	1	11
New York Municipal Court Given Management	12	4	116
Ohio's "Chief Justice Act" Not Mandatory	12	6	181
Survey of Philadelphia Municipal Court	14	1	15
Cleveland Common Pleas Court's Excellent Work	14	2	52
It Is Time to Redeem Metropolitan Courts	14	4	107
In the Seats of the Mighty, by William N. Cohen	14	4	110
Interest Grows in Cleveland Common Pleas Court	14	5	154
Detroit Circuit Court Integrated	14	6	174
Efficient Criminal Court Machinery—Detroit's Unified Criminal Court	14	6	180
Farming Out Justice—Magistrates Courts of Philadelphia	15	5	147
Miscellaneous Articles
Promoting Legal Authorship in Illinois Bar Association	11	1	14
A Business Administration of Justice, by T. W. Davidson	11	2	40
Justice Endangered by Sensational Press	11	2	50
Milwaukee Ambulance Chasers Disciplined	11	3	83
Lay Critic Reviews Courts' Faults	11	6	181
Judicial Reform Has Complete Program	12	1	5
U. S. Federation of Justice Created	12	1	29
U. S. Supreme Court Under New Act, by Gregory Hankin	12	2	40
Many Justices But Little Justice (Allegheny Co., Pa.)	12	2	44
Province of the Judge in Jury Trials, by Kenneth M. Johnson	12	3	76
Why Not Trust the Courts, by Charles H. Carey	12	3	91
Replies to National Economic League's Questionnaire	12	4	120
Five Points in Judicial Reform, by Hugh Henry Brown	12	4	124
Message from President Charles E. Hughes	12	5	131
Judicature Society's Hopes Are Well Founded	12	5	131
Yale Law School Leads in Getting Facts	12	5	150
President Hoover's Judiciary Commission	12	6	163
For a National Judicial Commission, by Clarence N. Goodwin	12	6	172
Recent Progress in California, by Clarke B. Whittier	12	6	174
System for Grading Judicial Salaries	12	6	184
Judiciary (in Mass.) Treated Like a Stepchild	13	1	3
Bar Association (in N. Y.) Ignored by Legislature	13	1	6
Why Blindfold Law Students?	13	1	11
Opening Minds of Young Lawyers	13	1	14
Two Guiding Principles for Lawyers	13	1	28
Campaign in New York for Competent Jurors	13	2	50
The Lord Chancellor as a Minister of Justice, by K. M. Johnson	13	2	52
First Book on Judicial Administration, by W. F. Willoughby	13	2	59
Justice in British Columbia	13	3	84
Massachusetts Reform Policy Defended, by Dunbar F. Carpenter	13	3	90
United States Supreme Court Problems, by Gregory Hankin	13	3	92
Law Students' Self-Governing Bar Association	13	4	101
Right Start for Young Lawyers, by Henry P. Chandler	13	4	105
"To Establish Justice," by Andrew R. Sherriff	13	4	115
Educational Standards Win Victory	13	5	136
Study of Judicial Administration in Ohio	13	5	140
Law Students Learn Duties of the Bar (in North Carolina)	13	5	157
The Privy Council Administering Justice	13	6	186
William Howard Taft—An Appreciation	14	1	4
Need for Judicial Statistics Realized	14	1	12
A Beginner Among the Nations	14	3	67
Death of Charles F. Ruggles	14	3	69
Co-operation Between Press and Bar	14	3	102
Recent Steps in Law Administration, by Leon Green	14	4	113
Notes on English Courts, by Richard W. Montague	14	5	158

	Vol.	No.	Page
Public Need Spurs Bench and Bar, by William Howard Taft	15	2	51
Portland City Club's Valuable Work	15	2	55
The New Juryman Thinks Aloud, by George S. Dalgety	15	2	56
The Depreciation of Decisions	15	2	60
Procedure Equivalent to a Moratorium	15	3	75
Public Relations Work in Louisiana	15	4	115
The Gap in Law School Instruction	15	5	131
Great Reform Movement in New York	15	5	133
Educational Standards Will Triumph (with maps)	15	5	136
Bar Examiners Organize	15	5	150
Judicial Efficiency and Governmental Stability, by Judge Clarence N. Goodwin	15	6	163

News and Comment in Brief

Vol. 14

Giving Life to Local Bar Associations	164	Cleveland Calendar Plan Adopted in Washington and New York	193
Mobilizing for Legislation (in California)	164	Home Ties for Manhattan Lawyers	193
Michigan Bar Learns How to Lobby	165	The Jurors' Handbook	193
Appointment of Judges More Common Than Supposed	165	Bar May Achieve More Glorious Future	194
Making Bar Meetings More Effective	165	The Contingent Fee Canons	194
Canadian Bars Study Their Economic Status	166	Justice for Indigent Prisoners	196
		Ohio Jury Selection Law Works	159

Vol. 15

Long Step in New York State Bar Integration	30	New Rules Save Court's Time (Cleveland)	122
Rule-making Power Held Valid in Wisconsin	31	State Bar Headquarters	123
A Meeting of Neighbors	31	Detroit's New Jury Selection Law	123
A Century-old Rule Held Unconstitutional (Illinois)	61	Ten States Try Felony Cases Without Jury	124
Catching Up with Kentucky	61	Washington State Bar Aims at Integration	124
Plans to Endow Law Journal (Indiana)	62	"What Price Jury Trials"—a Review	124
Giving Law Students Office Experience	62	Plan to Integrate Massachusetts Bar	125
Bar Thankful for Mediocrity (on bench)	62	New Grounds for Disbarment in Oklahoma	125
Waiver of Indictment Allowed in Rhode Island	62	Pensions for Judges in Twenty States	125
A Call for Statesmanship, by Woodrow Wilson	63	Bar Presidents' Election and Tenure	126
Befuddled Thinking	63	Non-Partisan Judicial Elections	126
First Fruits of Judicial Council Drafting in Texas	93	Bar's Ambition Stimulated in Wisconsin	127
Affiliation Plan of Missouri Bar Assoc.	93	How to Get Rid of Unfit Judges	127
Ignorance and Incapacity Promote Litigation	94	Educating the Trial Jury	156
Michigan Bar Assoc. Approves Incorporation Plan	94	Apply Sense to Bar Examinations	157
Progress of Bar Federation in "Backward States"	95	Illinois State Bar Innovations	157
Grand Jury as an Aid to Justice	95	Missouri Bar Completes Federation	158
California Bar Legislation	95	Missouri Bar Provides for Endowments	158
		Data on Inferior Tribunals	158
		Colorado Supreme Court Asserts Power	158
		Wisconsin Supreme Court Asserts Power	159
		Attacking a Vested Interest	159
		Ohio Jury Selection Law Works	186

Procedure in Civil Cases

Regulating Procedure by Court Rules, by C. B. Whittier	11	1	15
The Problem of Trying Issues, by E. R. Sunderland	11	1	20
Remedy Proposed for Justices' Courts	11	1	30
Washington Supreme Court Exercises Rule-making Power	11	6	187
Rules to Prevent Second Trials	12	1	10
Assignment of Cases for Trial, by J. Joseph Smith	12	1	15
Control of Procedure Through Court Rules, by Prof. E. R. Sunderland	12	1	24
Assist Courts in Handling Traffic Cases	12	1	27
Baltimore's Jury Selecting Plan	12	2	53
Rule-making Power, by Josiah Marvel	12	2	55
Why Rule-making Power Is Constitutional	12	3	67
Rules of Court Statute Held Valid in Washington	12	3	70
Moving Away from Pickwickian Trials	12	4	118
What Shall We Do With the Civil Jury?	12	5	134

	Vol.	No.	Page
Civil Jury Should Be Abolished, by Russell Duane	12	5	137
Summary Judgment Procedure in Connecticut	12	5	152
A Program for the Trial of Jury Trial, by John H. Wigmore	12	6	166
The Trial Bench of Three Judges, by C. I. Baldwin	12	6	185
Trial by Jury in Civil Cases, by Robert T. Donley	13	1	16
Should Court Advise Jury as to Facts	13	1	24
Jury Trial No Burden in Louisiana, by J. Kenton Bailey	13	1	47
A Long Step in Jury Reform (in Colorado)	13	3	67
Wisconsin Confers Rule-Making Power	13	3	71
Where Litigants Pay Jurors' Fees (California)	13	3	81
Side-Lights on Jury Trial	13	3	82
California Needs Rule-Making Power, by Hugh Henry Brown	13	3	88
English Procedure in Trials and Appeals	13	4	117
Advantages of Special Verdict, by Charles T. Coleman	13	4	122
Side-Lights on Jury Trial	13	4	124
The Jury—Reformation, Not Abolition, by Robert N. Wilkin	13	5	154
The Outlook for Procedural Reform	13	6	164
Judgment by Notice of Motion in Virginia, by S. S. P. Patteson	13	6	167
Procedure for Discovery in Wisconsin, by Cameron L. Baldwin	13	6	175
The Special Verdict as an Aid to the Jury, by John W. Staton	13	6	176
Plain Speech by Mr. Justice Roberts	14	1	7
The Strangled Judge, by George M. Hogan	14	4	116
Should Jury Trial Be Abolished?, by Thomas G. Long	14	5	162
Michigan Leads Procedural Reform	15	1	6
Jury Service Elevated in Cleveland	15	1	8
Plans to Curb Bluffing (Trial Briefs)	15	1	20
When Law and Psychology Mix (Evidence)	15	2	44
A Foundation for Procedural Reform (Prof. Hugh E. Willis)	15	4	117
Relief for Appellate Courts—Use of Expert Assistants	15	6	175
Study Problem of Delay on Appeal in Calif.	15	6	178
Pre-Trial Procedure in Wisconsin, by Quincy H. Hale	15	6	180
Procedure in Criminal Cases
Legal Aid in Criminal Cases Endowed in Chicago	11	1	29
What Is Wrong with the Prosecutor?	11	3	67
Who Shall Control Criminal Procedure?	13	4	107
"To Establish Justice" (Magistrates Courts), by Roscoe Walsworth	13	5	151
Reform of Police Courts Not Impossible	13	5	152
Trial Without Jury in Criminal Cases (see also vol. 15, p. 124)	15	3	71
Light on Grand Jury Procedure	15	4	121
Judicial Selection and Tenure
The Eligible List of Judicial Candidates	11	5	131
Methods of Selecting and Retiring Judges, by Albert M. Kales	11	5	133
Selection and Tenure of Judges, from State-Wide Judicature Act, Bul. VII-A	11	5	145
A Practical Way to Guide Voters—the Eligible List	11	6	164
Making Judges Independent	12	2	36
Bar Ticket Prevails in St. Louis	12	4	104
Cleveland Bar's Influence in Judicial Elections, by W. T. Dunmore	12	6	178
How to Be Elected Judge in Detroit	12	6	186
Public Needs Guidance in Selecting Local Judges	13	2	37
The Fascinating Problem of Choosing Judges	13	5	132
Should Bar Choose Judges?	13	5	134
Cleveland Bar Adopts Campaign Plan	14	1	9
Let Elected Commission Choose Judges, by Charles E. Matson	14	1	13
Results of Los Angeles Judicial Election, by Lawrence L. Larrabee	14	5	148
Success of Cleveland Bar in Judicial Election, by Austin V. Cannon	14	5	150
Trying to Circumvent a Politocracy (New York City)	14	6	190
Federal Judges' Selection and Organization, by Prof. Burke Shartel	15	1	21
		2	46
		3	79
Various Ways of Selecting Judges	15	2	38
		3	76
The Courts, the Press and the Public, by Stuart H. Perry	15	5	139
Cleveland's Latest Judicial Election	15	5	149
Wholesale Appointments to Bench in Los Angeles	15	5	150